

PLAY YOUR PART.

ASSEMBLY

Be among the first to join an exciting new movement.

Play Your Part is a student engagement initiative developed and facilitated by Right To Play. It encourages global citizenship, nurtures budding leadership skills, and demonstrates the transformative power of play. From including others in games at recess to connecting with kids in faraway countries, Play Your Part is all about changing the world by harnessing one's natural potential.

The initiative begins with a 50-minute assembly focused on engaging students to recognize their inner power to become leaders and global citizens.

The assembly will include:

- Opportunities for students to gain leadership skills, learn about other cultures, and discover how to play their part and make a difference in the world
- Fun and educational physical activities
- Motivating videos featuring Right To Play athlete ambassadors including an Olympian, Paralympian and NHL Player playing their part
- A surprising and outgoing facilitator
- Inspiring videos showcasing the stories of kids in Ghana who have been positively impacted by Right To Play

CHECKLIST

- Book off date and timeslot and inform all teachers of attending classes
- Book venue (usually a gym)
- Book/Identify AV equipment – mic, speakers, projector and screen or blank wall for videos
- Put up teaser posters

By signing up for Play Your Part, you will be taking the first step in creating a better future for children at home and abroad.

For further information, please contact schools@righttoplay.com

RIGHT TOPLAY

Canada

!ndigo